UPDATE TRAINING FOR FOOD ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS

Food Standards Update Course 24 March 2010, London

For the attention of all trading standards, environmental health and other local authority officers responsible for food standards enforcement.

The Food Standards Agency (FSA) is holding an update course for local authority officers with responsibility for enforcement of food labelling, standards and feedingstuffs legislation.

Please note that this course is aimed at practicing food enforcement officers. To ensure that as many officers as possible have the opportunity to attend the update we would ask that colleagues who have recently attended our update courses to allow other colleagues to attend so that they may benefit.

This course will be held at the Bonnington Rooms on Bloomsbury Square on 24 March 2010.

Speakers will be from the Food Standards Agency.

Places will be allocated on a one person from each authority basis. Any remaining places will be allocated on a first come first served basis. Accommodation is limited and will be restricted to those travelling from a distance.

If you wish to reserve a place, applicants should complete the details overleaf and email to the address shown. To arrive by no later than 22 February 2010

Topics to be covered Include:

FSA Overview and context

Food Allergies

Additives

Food Contact Materials

UK Food Surveillance System

Food Incidents
